“ I would like to extend the warm condolences of my family and I during this difficult time. Mrs. Hubbert definitely saw many things in her life time. Yet, it never seems time to not have a loved one around any more. I personally have experienced the loss of a loved one in death. I found much comfort from God's word the Bible that helped me to get through it. One scripture that brought me much comfort is Isaiah 25:8. This scripture speaks of how God will swallow up death forever. In the very near future God will completely remove death and all the pain caused by it. I hope these thoughts and scripture prove to be a source of comfort to you.
