“ Jay and Paul, I don't know if you remember me or not, but I attended Boy Scouts with you in the mid 80's where your dad was my scoutmaster. I am very sorry to hear that he has past. I hope your lives are going good as mine is. It is hard to believe how many years it has been. I understand you must have families now, as I also do. I have been married for almost 12 years now and have two kids that attend Turner Schools. Well that is it for now. Again, I am sorry to hear about your loss. Dennis

“ I'm very sorry to hear of Bubby's passing. We grew up together in KC, the Lillich's, Bubby, his Mom and Dad, Charlie (my age) Dan and Don, and their older sister. Were like family.

We were in scouts together, went to church together. We had great times when we were young.

Best Regards,

Tom Edemann

“ To everyone down south: it's hard to hear that Uncle Bubbie died. I figured he would've outlasted us all. He was tough and gave me my first taste of chew... We'll all miss him very much. He and my dad are probably tipping back a few and teasing each other about their weight.

“ Roy was indeed a special guy -- one of a kind. So sorry for the great loss. Good job with the obituary. You can sense his love for life.

Jeanette, without you present, one time he even said I could live with you guys. He was very caring.

“ I just wanted to send my condolences. I went all the way through school with Bubby, Starting at Stanley and graduating at Argentine. I had just asked a fellow with the phone company a short time ago about him and found out he was retired and enjoying life in small town Missouri. Glad he got to enjoy some retirement.

“ I wish in so many ways that my family and I could be there to say goodbye to Uncle Bubby, but that is just impossible right now. Uncle Bubby was a very special person. He helped me in many different ways and he never expected any back. He has a very special place in my heart and I will always remember him for his positive outlook on life.

“ I'm reading the small print & it say's I'm limited to 250 words. Oh shit! I guess that means I can continue on another entry?!!!

What can I say about a guy that as a teenager with a girlfriend, takes a little 3/4 year old girl on dates with the girlfriend? I was madly in love with Bubby as a little girl!

I can remember crying my heart out when he got married, because he was supposed to wait for me! He told me he would & I believed him!

No matter how many years passed between seeing Bubby, it was always like picking up from the day before.

My love to Charlie & Don, Jay (we subbed together at Turner)& Paul and to you Jeanette. Though we have never met we have loved an irreplaceable guy.

*Love,

“ ONE WORD TO DESCRIBE MY UNCLES "AWSOME" AS THE FIRST BORN NIECE IN MY FAMILY, MY UNCLES SPOILED ME ROTTEN. I HAVE FOND MEMORIES OF EACH AND EVERY ONE. MY UNCLE BUBBIE PARTIED HARD AND I USED TO CLEAN HOUSE FOR HIM USUALLY HE WOULD DROP ME OFF AND LEAVE ONE DAY, I WAS CLEANING WHEN I GOT HUNGRY, I WAS SEARCHING FOR SOMETHING TO EAT AND ALL I COULD COME UP WITH WAS A GALLON JAR OF HOT PICKLED EGGS, SWISS CHEESE AND BEER, NOT EXACTLY WHAT I HAD IN MIND. I TEASED HIM ABOUT THAT EVERY TIME THE CHANCE CAME UP. I LOVE YOU UNCLE BUBBIE AND YOU WILL BE GREATLY MISSED. EVERY TIME I TELL A JOKE OR SHARE A FEW LAUGHS WITH FRIENDS I WILL THINK OF YOU. LISA

“ I remember Bubby and how funny him and my dad were together. Always making us laugh at their stories. He was the neatest guy. I also will never forget when my dad died how he gave my mom the plots that were his. He was a true friend to my dad (lester) and he will be missed.
