

Samantha King

February 10, 1985 - July 1, 2022

Samantha "Sammi" Danielle King, 37 passed away July 1, 2022, in her home surrounded by loved ones. Her passion for teaching, along with her love for her children and students, gave her the strength and inspiration to keep courageously fighting throughout her year-long battle with cancer.

She will be forever missed, but her family and friends find great comfort knowing Sammi's contributions to the community. The legacy she leaves through her ten years of teaching are truly immeasurable and will continue well into the future.

She is survived by her loving husband of 12 years Justin King; her precious children, Weston and Emersyn; father, James Callaway; sister, Amanda Bybee and her husband, Ryan; brother, Thomas Callaway and his wife, Brittany along with many other family, friends and community. She is preceded in death by her mother, Karen Callaway.

Services for Sammi will be held 11:00 Am Saturday, July 16, 2022, at the Fairview Methodist Church. Visitation will be held 3:00 PM to 7:00 PM Friday, July 15, 2022, at the Butler Funeral Home in Bolivar, MO.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made through Mid- Missouri Bank for the benefit of her children.

The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude to the entire community for the constant outpouring of love and support bestowed upon them throughout the past year - your kindness and thoughtfulness truly made a difference during this unimaginable hardship.
