

Sandra Reynolds

April 12, 1939 - March 9, 2018

Sandra Reynolds, age 78, of Humansville, Missouri, passed away at her home, in Humansville, on Friday, March 9, 2018.

Sandra Leone Reynolds was born on April 12, 1939, in South San Francisco, California, to Van and Vivian Moss. She married Robert Reynolds on March 13, 1963, in California.

Together, Sandra and Robert owned and operated Reynolds Auto Body Shop, as well repairing and selling RVs for 27 years. They then moved to Missouri. She was very creative, and worked on art projects, such as stained glass, ceramics, and paintings.

Sandra was very active in raising and showing Basset Hounds, and won many awards, including a best of breed. She cared for all animals, and often donated to causes protecting animals, because she could not stand to see them hurt. Her own pets, Smidgey, Coco, Henry, Lucy, Jackie, and Annie will miss her very much.

She is preceded in death by one son, Sean Connery Reynolds.

Survivors include her husband, Robert; a daughter, Dawn Perry; son, Guy Perry; and a granddaughter, Ashley Perry.

Cremation services are under the care and direction of Butler Funeral Home, and a family memorial will be held at a later date.

“ Bob, Cecil and I send our heartfelt sympathy. I could count on an evening email from Sandie and an animal picture which always made me smile. She was kind and her devotion as a friend won't be forgotten.

“ Bob, wanted to let you know that we all share in your grief at the loss of Sandy. She was artistic witty and compassionate as well as kind to animals. She could be fierce when she believed in something. She was definitely a spirited woman and you did well by her. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you need something. You both have been much appreciated befriending our mother Imogene. Now it's your turn, so don't be a stranger. We hope to see you soon. Julie Nelson
