“ Sharon, We do not know each other. I live in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. I just this very minute discovered the very sad news of your departure while looking for your address. I wanted to contact you and your sister (Debra) because I have found that we are distant cousins. I got your names from a copy of your father's obituary. I was hoping to meet you at the Walnut Festival or elsewhere this month. I'm so sorry I waited to contact you both. BTW, I am 68 yrs. old. You look like a very sweet and good person. I am so sorry I didn't get to meet you, but we will meet in Heaven.

“ Hi Sharon,
I just want you to know that I miss you very much. If it was up to me, I would put your ashes on some Beautiful Flowers in the Spring, instead of putting you in a cold hole. Tomorrow will be that day and I'm not looking forward to it.
December 19, 2012 we was having out Christmas party and you died. I know your not in any pain but why does a person have to die to feel better? Why can't the doctors make a person feel better without spending a lot of money? I'm sorry Sharon, I still have the card you gave me when my cat Smokey died and that was when I first met you, 10 years ago. I didn't know it at the time, that you were going to be a very good friend.
I love you Sharon, there's one more thing. Could you look for Jack, he's been in Doggie Heaven for 13 months, 2 weeks and 2 days. I still miss that dog.
Love you,
Cheryl "Your Little Buddy".

“ I know you are in a better place But I miss looking at your face You were so young to die Every night I sit and I cry Wondering why does it have to be this way It hurts so much because there's nothing I can do or say That can make you come back to me There is one thing that's plain to see That one day we will be together again And now until then you will always remain my friend.
