“ After learning of Uncle Ted's passing, I felt I needed to reflect on all the memories I had of him prior to posting my thoughts here. the one thing that keeps returning to me this is my uncle Ted's smile... I swear he was always smiling at something. Whatever was running thrOugh his head at those times I would have paid money to see! In fact, I daresay he's one of the few truly humorous people I've had the pleasure of meeting. The only thing I can think of that Ted was more passionate about than Life was his beloved Cardinals. I cannot think of anyone who had so much fun in Life... whether it was ripping around in one of his many Mopars over the years, or, just sitting back with a smile and a laugh. Ted has left a tremendous void in my Life that well never be filled. I only hope I can enjoy Life half as much as he did... if I could, I would certainly be one happy man.
