“ I am sadden to hear of the lost of your love one. Often when someone we love dies we ask, why did this happen? Will all the death and suffering ever end? God's word the Bible provides comforting answers to those questions. Isaiah 25:8 says ""he will actually swallow up death forever, and the sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces."" The Bible also gives us hope for seeing our loved ones again, by means of the resurrection. Jesus speakes of such a time at John5:28 where he tell us"" Do not marvel at this,because the hour is coming in which all those in memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." The Bible can offer you an abundance of hope and comfort during this most difficult time. God's word promis us that soon death and pain will be no more Rev.21:4. “ I knew Tom a very long time ago. I know he'll be missed, he was one of a kind. So sorry he's gone, but I believe he's in a better place now.

I am praying for all his family and friends. Marsha and I are very saddened by his passing.

“ To the Wigton and Gaylord Families,
I don't know how to express my sorrow for your loss. Tommy was such a big part of my life growing up in Corona, and I have such fond memories of him. Please hold tight to each other, and remember he is in God's hands in a much better place than this. I know this is so hard for all of you. Please give my love to his children, and God Bless all of you. You will be in my prayers.

“ The memories came flooding back - of summers spent together in Michigan - the whole bunch of us happily getting into trouble!

I feel sad that Tommy left us so soon.

May the sharing of grief lighten the sorrow for all.
