OBITUARY

TIMOTHY CHARLES FLANDERS

Timothy Charles Flanders, born November 6, 1944, died of a heart attack at Bass Pro Distribution on March 13, 2006. He was the 3rd son born to Lloyd and Helena Flanders, at Long Lane, Mo, in a two room cabin on the Big Niangua River.

After graduating from Doniphan High School, Timothy went to college for 3 years to be an accountant, mostly at SMS. Timothy worked for many years out of Columbia University's Agricultural Experimental station, as a junior agronomist. After his Father died in 1984, he moved to Cliquot to help care for his Mother. He worked at Frank's Market, then, Bass Pro SDC Dept. for many years. Timothy was a loving gentle man who enjoyed family, friends, music, computers, flowers but NOT repairing his car.

Timothy is survived by 3 sisters, Iris Hucker , Alice Evans, and Carol Flanders Maples, 4 nephews, Adam Hucker, Lloyd, Jason and B.R. Evans, 1 niece, Faith Flanders, 3 great nieces, Leaha, Winter and Skyla and one great nephew, Maxamus. One aunt, Wilma Halco and 2 uncles, Charles Halco and Carl Herrmann plus a multitude of cousins.

Preceding Timothy in death were his parents, Lloyd and Helena Flanders, 2 brothers, David and Charles Flanders, 1 brother in law, Tom Hucker and 1 nephew, Aaron Hucker.

Graveside services will be held at 11 A.M. Friday, March 17, 2006 at the Benton Branch cemetery, east of Buffalo, with long time friend, Elder Samuel West, presiding. Burial will be under the direction of the Butler Funeral Home of Bolivar.
