“ No person is ever truly alone. Those who live no more, Whom we loved, Echo still within our thoughts, Our words, our hearts. And what they did And who they were Becomes a part of all that we are, Forever.

Timothy & Hope Brunton - June 06, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ My condolences go out to Tim's family. He will be remembered and missed. Always a good person and had a true heart. Rest in peace in your new place. We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, in the same way God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-14)

James G. Paulsen - June 02, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always remeber you as a fellow bowler and friend.

“ I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and hope by means of the promises found in God's word the bible. The promise that one day "death will be no more" (Revelation 21:3,4) Also the promise of the resurrection. (Isaiah 26:19, John 5:28,29 and 1 Thessalonian 4:13,14) The resurrection affords us the opportunity to see our loved ones again. We can place our confidence in such promises because the bible tells us that "it is impossible for God to lie" (Hebrews 6:18)
