

Velma Rose Lake

September 10, 1931 - November 13, 2012

Velma Rose Lake, 81, of Tulsa, Oklahoma passed away Tuesday, November 13, 2012. She was born in California, Missouri to the late John and Martha Thompson on September 10, 1931. She was united in marriage to the late Claude Franklin Lake on September 17, 1949. Claude and Velma spent most of their lives in Flemington, Missouri before relocating to Lamar, Arkansas. Following Claude's death, she relocated to Tulsa, Oklahoma to live with her son Garry. Velma enjoyed spending her days doing cross stitch, gardening, fishing, relaxing under the shade tree in her front yard and keeping up with her children's lives. She and Claude raised 5 children together; Connie Graham of Lamar, Arkansas (deceased), Lanny Lake of Boise, Idaho, Garry Lake of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Frances Stock of Phoenix, Arizona and Glenda Hebert of Eunice, Louisiana. Additional blessings in her life were her 13 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. A viewing will be held at Murray Funeral Home in Humansville, Missouri on Sunday, November 18th from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM. Funeral services will be on Monday, November 19th at 11:00 AM. She will be laid to rest at Flagsprings Cemetery in California, Missouri.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Aunt Velma's passing. I have a lot of fond memories of her while growing up. May your memories of her give you comfort during this difficult time.

Judy Balke - November 19, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Velma was a very special person in my young life, the mother of my best friend (Connie). She gave me advice and love like I was another of her children. She was a second Mom to me, and I loved her dearly. Though we've grown apart in distance and familiarity, I still love each and every one of you (Pete, Garry, Francis, & Glenda). And, I can't forget Rhonda and Kyle. My heart is with you, sharing the loss of your mother and grandmother.

Glenda Hyman - November 17, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Thank you, Aunt Velma, for being my closest and favorite Aunt.
