“ Jerry Johnson and Family,
Jerry, I am so sorry for your loss. I lost my father, Nov. 8th so I know what your family is going through at this time. Rest assured that her sickness is gone and she is in perfect health walking hand in hand with Jesus. My prayers are with you during this time and the weeks to come.

“ Gordon, Shirlee, and family,

I will always remember Vera's Chicken and Noodles. She was truly one of a kind. She cared so much about everyone and enjoyed life to the fullest. I may have only seen her a few times, but she made you feel like you were a part of her family from the beginning. She will be missed greatly. Please remember to allow yourselves the memories to come through in these times of sorrow. For they will be what brings you peace.

“ Dear Coney and family,

Our deepest sympathies to you on the loss of Vera. I have such fond childhood memories of the big fish frys at your house and getting together with all relatives and of Vera taking such sweet care of my Grandpa and Grandma Burton at Butterfield. (I am the oldest daughter of Jerry and Diana Crain). Your family are all in our prayers.

*With much love,
Gina and Ray*
