“ I am so saddened to learn that we have lost Bill. Bill and Dixie were among my favorite relatives and always enjoyed their company when I returned to Missouri every year. Bill and My father Hubert were such good friends and enjoyed many, many long hours talking on the phone. May God bless each of you.

“ When I think of my happiest childhood days, I think of Aldrich and the wonderful people there who always made me feel at home. My cousins, the Shulers, were an important part of my world. Bill and all of his brothers and sisters and his parents, my Aunt Lucile and Uncle George, were always so good to me and to my mother, Virginia Singer, when we visited over the years. I can hear my mother now. "Salt of the earth," she would say to describe the Shulers. That was her highest praise. God bless all of you in the loss of Bill. He was a good man, salt of the earth.
