

Vivian Ann Percy

February 3, 1930 - February 9, 2008

Vivian Ann (Peffley) Percy, 78, passed away on February 9, 2008 at Big Springs Care Center in Humansville, Missouri after a long illness.

She was born in Montgomery County, Indiana on February 3, 1930 to Carl and Reba (Myers) Peffley.

Vivian's job at the time of her retirement was an auditor for several hotels. She was exceptionally talented and intelligent. Her last endeavor before moving into Big Springs Care Center was graduating from Clown School in San Diego. While residing in San Diego, she created the character Hey You Vivian, retired and stated: I am fully aware that my youth has been spent, that my get up and go has got up and went but, I really don't care when I think with a grin of all the great places my get up has been. Vivian will be best remembered as a loving and caring mother and her children will miss her very much.

She is survived by seven children: Charles A. and Rhonda Beasley of Indiana; Martin and Susan J. Flaherty of Florida; Brenda R. Beasley of Stockton, Missouri; James F. Beasley of Nevada; James and Evelyn K. Morrison of Alabama; David L. Beasley of South Carolina; and Carl D. Still of Arizona; 11 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimers

Association, Southwest Missouri Chapter, Glen Isle Center, 1500 S.
Glenstone, Springfield, Missouri 65804.

“ Sue, We are so very sorry for the loss of your mother. I only met your mom once, but she made a deep impression on me. She was a lot of fun and we had a great weekend at the wedding with all of us together. She was a very nice cordial, happy go lucky lady. I wish her peace. Love Kay
