

Wanda Lee Agee

September 17, 1935 - June 16, 2014

Mrs. Wanda Lee Agee, age 78 of Springfield, MO passed away at 7:55 AM Monday, June 16, 2014 at the Mercy Hospital in Springfield, MO following a brief illness.

Wanda was born on September 17, 1935 near Adonis in Polk County, Missouri the daughter of Clifford Cribbs and Sadie Irene (Seiner) Cribbs.

As a child, one of Wanda's responsibilities was to milk cows. One in particular, was named Dori, which she nicknamed Dumb Dori due to lack of cooperation on the cows part. In addition, she spent many days running from her brothers as they chased her with mice while she milked.

Wanda loved the thrill of going fast in a car. It was evident when she snuck out and drag raced in her dad's car one night against the local boys...and won! But, she went to her dad and told him before he found out!

She was united in marriage on August 30, 1957 in Bolivar, MO to Dorman Kyle Agee. To this union one daughter, Leigh Ann was born.

During her years with Dorman, she enjoyed traveling, including yearly trips to Clearwater, Florida with friends and eating at the Kapock Tree. Wanda also hung wallpaper and painted interiors of homes with her dear friends Ann Pursley and Rosie Hopkins. Wanda and Ann were known as “Ralph and Alph”.

She worked at Gospel Publishing House as a key punch operator, then, several years later, returned to GPH and helped in the bindery department.

Wanda loved to sing and was a part of several gospel groups. One of which was a trio with friends Lelan Pettit and Venda Hanley. They would sing at funerals and would sometimes get tickled behind the wall of the chapel while singing in the service.

She spent many holidays and weekends at the lake with family. Always loving to be in the water or the boat. Wanda was somewhat of a daredevil because she would float on a raft with a lifejacket, even though she couldn't swim.

She loved attending ball games of family and friends. Never wanted to miss. Always getting really excited and sometimes giving constructive criticism to the referees!

Wanda and Dorman are member of James River Church and have attended for over 20 years. She volunteered in many areas including the accounting department and meal ministries for funerals.

She was known as Nana to her grandkids. She wanted to be with them as much as possible. Whether playing dominos with Lauren, watching Corbin play basketball, or playing on the floor with Christian & Cayden, she loved her time with them!

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clifford and Sadie Cribbs, a sister, Darlene Allen, a nephew Kyle Gunn, two nieces, Sherie Lynn and Terie Ann Cribbs.

Surviving Wanda is her husband, Dorman K. Agee of the home; One daughter, Leigh Ann Medley and husband Chuck of Rogersville, MO; One Sister, Carrol Stepp and husband Darrell of Walnut Grove, MO; Two brothers, Darrol Cribbs and wife Judy and David Cribbs and wife Betty both of Bolivar, MO; two sisters-in-law, Dorene Gunn of Temple, TX and Shirley (Boots) Clark and husband Harold of Springfield, MO. “ Miss Wanda is the name I would call her. I knew her since the day I started my new position in Sam's Club. She was always friendly and caring to all of us in the pharmacy. When I came back to work, from being gone for 8 months, to treat my breast cancer, miss Wanda was the first person to give me a big hug and welcomed me back to work. She said she missed me all that time. Well, it looks like I will be missing her a lot more than just awhile. My deepest heartfelt thoughts and prayers go out to all of her family and friends.
