

Wayne Reser

August 16, 1935 - May 12, 2011

Gaylord Wayne Reser, 75, Humansville, died Thursday, May 12, 2011 at Big Spring Care Center, Humansville. The son of John B. and Grace L. (Hoskinson) Reser, he was born August 16, 1935 in Hugoton, Kansas. Before becoming disabled, Wayne was a manager for the Ronson Company and a roofing company mechanic. He served several terms as an alderman for the City of Humansville. Wayne had four loves in his life: his race cars, his bowling, telling jokes and flirting with the ladies. He enjoyed working on cars and lawn mowers, turkey hunting and fishing. He liked old westerns and John Wayne movies. Enjoying his morning coffee and socializing at the A-Frame Caf was also a favorite. Wayne always laughed at and with his kids, never raising his voice, always staying calm and being understanding and generous. His parents and an infant sister, Jimalee, preceded him in death. Surviving are two children and their spouses, Vickie and Josh Adamson, Lincoln, NE and David and Sheri Reser, Humansville; 2 grandsons, Ethan and Logan; 4 sisters, Ima Jean Degraffenreid, Louisburg, KS, Marjorie Brown, Oxnard, CA, Peggy Blevins and husband, Lewis, Miller, and Betty Edmondson, Shawnee, OK; 2 brothers, Keith Reser and wife, Kathy, Springfield and Johnny Reser and wife, Donna, Raymore; and nieces and nephews. Funeral services will at 2:00 PM Sunday, May 15, 2011 at Murray Funeral Home, Humansville, with Rev. Jack Sawyers officiating. Interment will be in Humansville Cemetery. Visitation will be Saturday from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. Donations in memory of Wayne may be made to the American Lung Association.

“ Deepest sympathies to all of Wayne's family and friends. He was a truly kind and generous man. He always helped his Aunt Eileen (my mother) as best he could, and was a loving nephew to my father. He is at peace now. RIP 2011 Pamela
