William loved to fish with his friends and family. You could count on him for a good fish story. He also enjoyed spending time with family and friends, and loved getting calls to go out for a meal, play cards, or watch a sporting event.

William loved the Lord. He attended Harvest Assembly of God Church in Fair Play. Many knew him as a mighty prayer warrior. His faith in God saw him through many challenges in his life. He loved attending many prayer groups, and always prayed for those who needed God's help. His life is a walking testimony to the power of prayer and faith in the Father.

William was preceded in death by his mother, Mary John Thompson; his father, William Mitchell Durham; and two brothers, John Durham, and Randy Cook.

He is survived by his daughters, Christie Evans of Bolivar, Misty Stortz and husband Paul, also of Bolivar; three grandchildren, Trevor and Jessica Evans, and Kaitlyn Stortz; four brothers: Billy Durham and wife Sharon, Blue Springs; Leonard Durham and wife Connie, Blue Springs; Dennis Dill and wife Betty, Independence; Jerry Wayne Durham and wife Susan, Independence; two sisters: Janie Fabian, Independence; Betty King and husband Danny, Blue Springs. “ Girls, please know that your father was a very great man, when we attended church at Harvest Assembly we would see him, and then when we started going to Country Side Assembly, he would come by once in a while and have breakfast before going on to Fair Play, One thing we all know that he has reached the destination that we are all striving for....

“ *Hi Girls,
What a bittersweet time.
I am thinking of the absolute JOY your Dad is experiencing right now. I'm sure he can't wait for you to join him and see it for yourselves.
I hope you will be able to keep that image in your minds as you go through this next while of sadness and loss.*

“ *Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too, know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' “ We loved Willie at Harvest Assembly. My daughter, Bree, always loved teasing him about his Mickey Mouse watch. We're going to miss Willie but we know he has received his Heavenly reward.
